

SNEAKER

aka Dunkeltier aka Lupo aka the voice of Serial Error aka ½ GOTT

Whether as a producer or DJ – Sneaker is doing it properly but always after careful consideration. He loves music which imparts atmosphere and attitude towards life, even in a parodying way that doesn't take it all or itself too serious. Early on, he fell in love with Detroit and Chicago but furthermore there are the obscure Italo, new wave and minimal synth gems that make his sets and Dunkeltier edits special and provide his productions with that edgy Sneaker flavor.

If he doesn't reflect on dance music's history, the graduate of Fine Arts shuttles extensively between his part-time-hometowns Dresden and Berlin, where he operates the TailOut mastering studios with long-time collaborator Jacob Korn.

He remixed classic EBM and minimal synth bands such as Twilight Ritual, Esplendor Geométrico, Absolute Body Control, S.M. Nurse and Click Click on his contribution on Frigio based in Madrid, Bahnsteig 23 and the Macadam Mambo Edits label from Lyon.

The prickly bomb that is 'You Think You Think!' on Uncanny Valley Rec. has enriched the sets of Daniel Bell (DBX), Crème head TLR, Cassius, Traxx and Deetron. It was featured on the FabricLive-CD of Daniel Avery. After the collaboration Heteronomous on Jacob Korn's debut album (featured by Mano Le Tough in the Boiler Room and licensed to the Future 303 compilation on Toolroom Records) he became specialized on edits of dance (un-)classics to be witnessed on his releases on Rat Life and Mond Musik.

As one third of Serial Error along with Korn and Credit 00 they were invited for a feature on the Our Beat Is Still New series on Red D's We Play House label from Belgium - a studio project, that now becomes further established with 2nd EP on Rat Life in 2019.

In the past whirlwind years Sneaker has seen an enormous output with EPs on Bio Rhythm, ULM, Lunatic, Bordello A Parigi plus numerous contributions on vinyl labels such as Emotional Rescue, Lux, Lustpoderosa and Mechatronica. In disguise as the carnivorous part of the synth pop duo Bionda e Lupo on Charlois, slow jak beats on Fit Sound, Detroit, plenty of new Dunkeltier edits on wax. In 2019 he introduced the DJ-duo GOTT with his partner Scannoir from Zurich by two EPs of top-notch synth-wave/EBM on Uncanny Valley.
